Criterion 7

Institutional Values and Best Practices

Q.No.7.1.9

Sensitization of students and employees of the institution to the constitutional obligation: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens

The institution gives importance to patriotism among the students. They have the quotes of great leaders in the college corridor on each floor.

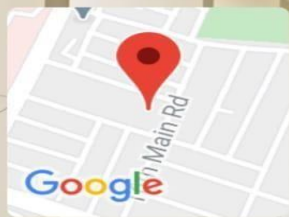

In prayer it is better to have a heart without words than words without a heart.
- Mahatma Gandhi

Report on 'Civic Responsibility'

10th March 2018

A workshop on 'Civic Responsibility' was conducted by CMCA (Children's Movement ~~for~~ Civic Awareness) at RJS First Grade College from 9:00 am to 3:00pm on 9th of March, 2018. Students of 1st year BCA, 1st year BSc (PMCs) and 1st year BSc (Bio-tech) attended the programme. The official programme was presided over by Dr. Vijaya Reddy, the Principal of RJSFGC. Mr. Ashish Patel, the Director of CMCA was the special invitee at the programme. Mrs. Padmashree, the President of RWA, Kormangala, an activist, spoke on the occasion.

About 150 students attended the programme. After the official programme these students were divided into 3 groups and were handled by CMCA educators. They were taught Fundamental Rights and Duties. They were also taught about our responsibilities towards our community. The students considered the programme beneficial and have given a positive feedback on the same.
